【For 2026 Spring Enrollment Applicants】

* There are four tuition fee payments in the Master's program.

5. The Number of Selection

There is no upper limit on the number of recipients, and those who meet the eligibility requirements will be selected as scholarship recipients.

6. Application Procedure

Those who meet the eligibility requirements will be automatically considered for the scholarship selection through the following procedures.

○Selection at the time of admission

<  Regular undergraduate students of SIT >

Students who have a TOEIC score of 550 or higher, registered as “approved” in the S*gsot Portfolio by the day before enrollment, will be automatically considered for the scholarship admission selection.

For inquiries regarding score registration, approval process, and registration deadlines in the S*gsot Portfolio, please contact the Division of Global Initiatives.

< Graduates of SIT's Undergraduate Program >

Applicants who submit a TOEIC® L&R score report of 550 or higher at the time of application will be automatically considered for the scholarship admission selection.

※ When applying, please enter your student ID number at the time of graduation in the 'Application form' section on TAO.

< The Approach to S*gsot Portfolio registration for regular Undergraduate Students of SIT and the day before enrollment varies >

For example, if the enrollment date for graduate school is April 1, 2026, then March 31, 2026, would be the day before enrollment. Under this system, Students holding TOEIC scores (TOEIC® L&R, IP test) of 550 or above in the "approved" status on the S*gsot Portfolio by the day before enrollment will automatically be considered for this scholarship.

Scores from internal IP tests will be automatically registered, but for scores from official tests taken externally, individuals must register them and obtain approval themselves. For inquiries regarding S*gsot Portfolio score registration, including deadlines, processing time for approval and required documents, please contact the Division of Global Initiatives.

□Selection during the enrollment

Students whose TOEIC score, registered as 'approved' in the S*gsot Portfolio at the end of the second semester of the master's program, meets the scholarship eligibility criteria (ウ, エ, or オ) will be automatically considered for the scholarship selection during enrollment. For inquiries regarding S*gsot Portfolio score registration, including deadlines, processing time for approval and required documents, please contact the Division of Global Initiatives.
