However, submission may be required at the time of application. For details, please refer to “2. (6) Application Documents.”
- ※ The deadline for pre-consultation is 【Thursday, October 30, at 16:00】 .
- ※ If your first-choice faculty member is unable to accept you, you may proceed with a pre-consultation with your second-choice faculty advisor. However, this must be done within the pre-consultation period. Therefore, we strongly recommend conducting the pre-consultation with your first-choice faculty advisor as early as possible. You may conduct pre-consultations with up to three faculty members, but not simultaneously. Please note that if the pre-consultation period ends, you may not be able to proceed with pre-consultations for your second or third-choice faculty advisors.

(2) Handling of Personal Information

The information which provided for the application procedure such as 「name, address (contact information) , other personal information (hereinafter referred as “personal information”)」 are being used in order to notify the selection and notification of admission.

Also, the above personal information of the applicant will be used for the student life supports, learning instructions and emergency contact, after the applicant’s admission. SIT manages and stores personal information provided by applicants under a strict management system in accordance with the Shibaura Institute of Technology Personal Information Protection Regulations, and the university will not leak and share the applicant’s personal information to any third party.

(3) Security Trade Control (Export Control)

SIT conducts screenings for the provision of technology and the acceptance of researchers and students in accordance with the provisions of the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act and related regulations. As a result, if there is a possibility that your intended education or research activities fall under restricted matters, you may be required to modify your proposed study or research content.

For more details on security export control, please refer to the following website of the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry (METI). <https://www.meti.go.jp/policy/anpo/englishpage.html>

(4) Reasonable accommodation for Examination and Study

SIT accepts consultations from applicants with disabilities regarding special considerations for examinations and academic studies. Applicants who require special accommodations for visual or hearing impairments, physical disabilities, speech or language disorders, chronic illnesses, developmental disorders, or other conditions must submit a request for reasonable accommodations in examinations and academic studies.

《How to apply》

9. On the Acquisition of Status of Residence as “Studying Abroad”

International students who are granted admission to our university may apply for the "Student" residence status. However, please note that it is not possible to be enrolled at the university with the "Short-Term Stay" residence status. Please read the following carefully, and if applicable, ensure that you complete the necessary procedures, such as residence status extension, change of residence status, or application for Certificate of Eligibility on behalf of the applicant.

Current Condition	Required Procedures
a) Having the status of residence as “Student”	If necessary, please apply for permission to renew your period of stay. This procedure can be carried out 3 months before the expiration date of the status of residence period.
b) Having the status of residence as “Short Term Stay”	As a rule, please leave the country once and apply for the "Student" residence status. For more details, please refer to "(d)
c) Have a status of residence other than "Student" or "Short-term stay" ※ "Permanent Resident " and "Family Stay" etc.	No special procedure is required; however, if you wish to change to the "Student" residence status, please submit a "Change of Residence Status Application."
d) Not having status of residence (New acquisition of status of residence)	To apply for a status of residence, you must first apply for a Certificate of Eligibility (CoE) from the Immigration Bureau in Japan. Shibaura Institute of Technology will submit this application on your behalf. Once the CoE is issued by the immigration office and received by the university, it will be mailed to the applicant. After you received the CoE, apply for a “Student” visa at a Japanese embassy or consulate in your home country or country of residence within the validity period of the CoE, in order to obtain your residence status.

For " Application for Extension of Stay" and "Application for Change of Status of Residence" and "New Acquisition of Status of Residence", application documents with a seal from Shibaura Institute of Technology are required. These documents can be issued to those who passed the entrance examination and paid the enrollment fee.

It takes several days to issue the required documents. Therefore, please contact in advance according to the following guidance.

【Regarding the application for the issuance of documents required for residence procedures.】

- After passing the entrance exam, please follow the instructions to pay the enrollment fee.
